How do I know what category to choose?

International delegate registration includes all delegates (Australia included) attending the Congress. This excludes delegates belonging to countries listed as least developed countries under United Nations criteria.

LDCs delegate registration includes all delegates from least developed countries (LDCs). LDCs benefit from a special discount rate. Please note that a LDCs representative fee is related to the country of residence. To view to list of LDCs, please click here.

Companion registration includes all family members, spouses or friends accompanying a delegate. Companion registration includes attendance at the Congress Opening Ceremony, harbour cruise, Welcome Reception and Gala Dinner (no congress sessions). Should you wish to register more than one companion, please contact the Congress' registration department at 10wcc@arinex.com.au. Should you be travelling with additional staff, please note that they must also be fully registered in order to attend. A separate registration form will be required.

Press registration includes all journalists and photographers. To request a press registration, please contact: For all Australian national media representatives, please email: Damian.Kelly@nswbc.com.au. For all international media representatives, please email: congresspress@iccwbo.org. With a copy of your media credentials.

The Confederation of Asia-Pacific Chambers of Commerce and Industry (CACCI) member registration for the 10th World Chambers Congress incorporates registration for their 31st annual CACCI conference.
